Monster Concert In Bellevue Arena To Open Third Victory Loan In Crows Nest Pass Towns

Two Young Ladies From California, Twenty Members In Concert Group, Twenty Seven Members In Air Force Band, Parades Locally Of Air Cadets And Miss Canada Girls

Canada's Third Victory Loan will open in the same aggressive manner as it did in the Second loan in the Crows Nest Pass towns. Bellevue will be the scene of the big festivity and the Bellevue arena has been engaged to hold a monster concert at which will be heard leading speakers. Two young maidens from California who come to Canada and the Crows Nest Pass through courtesy of the U.S. government, twenty talented artists and an air force band comprising twenty seven members, will furnish the entertainment program.

The publicity committee in each town will endeavor to organize a parade comprising the air cadet unit and the Miss Canadas. Where a local band is available it will also be asked to take part in the parade. All citizens are asked to be on hand to witness the local parades. Following the parade the Miss Canadas and the air cadets will be transported to Bellevue where they will take part in the main parade which will be led by the Air Force Band. Citizens are urged to travel to Bellevue and take as many of their friends as is possible in their cars.

A large stage will be erected in the Bellevue arena with a back drop and two wings provided to aid in the stage shows. A powerful public address system will be used in order that every person in the hall might hear each speaker distinctly. Seating accommodation is being arranged on the main floor (ice floor) of the arena.

In addition to the main speakers the program is expected to include songs, plays, music and probably a dance or two similar to that given by Miss Sunshine who appeared here at the opening of the Second Victory Loan.

Mr. Wm. Cole is publicity chairman in Bellevue and is making the necessary arrangements.

The concert will start at 2:30 sharp and continue for approximately two and a half hours. The local parades will probably get started around 1 p.m.

The concert party will leave for Macleod that evening to start the Macleod loan campaign in similar grand style.

Air Marshal Bishop Meets Flight Lieutenant Foss Boulton

Air Marshal W. A. Bishop, V.C., meets the lads who are carrying on Canada's great tradition in the air which he helped establish in the last war. He is introduced to the pilots of a Royal

Canadian Air Force fighter squadron by their commanding officer, Squadron Leader Norman Bretz, D.F.C., of Toronto (right). The air marshal is shaking hands with Flight Lieut. F. H. Boulton, of Coleman, Alta. Unlike the lone and daring forays in which the air marshal scored most of his 72 victories, these lads do battle in closely co-operative teams.

Tribute Paid The Journal At Convention

Premier Aberhart Attended Luncheon Given By Publishers by the Provincial Government.

The Journal staff attended the Alberta Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association convention held at the Palliser hotel in Calgary on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 9 and 10.

The convention was very good, there being a goodly number of weekly publishers from all parts of the province in attendance. In addition to the business sessions, the entertainment program was outstanding. The biggest thrill received by the Journal staff in a long time was during one of the business sessions. Mr. A. P. Halpen, mechanical superintendent of the Calgary Albertan, was giving an address on "Make-Up in a Newspaper." After giving criticism to a number of papers he picked up The Journal, opened it, and then remarked: "I wish to congratulate the man who made up these advertisements. In my opinion, they are as neatly set up and printed as one could see in any weekly in the Dominion." Turning to the front page, Mr. Halpen's only criticism was in the size of type in the sub-heads. He suggested a little larger type. To say that we were thrilled is putting it mildly, especially since there were so many old-time printers looking on.

There were two highlights in the entertainment program, the first during the dinner given the publishers by the Calgary Herald and Albertan. The main speaker was a well-known Calgary barrister, A. L. Smith, K.C. He gave a forceful address. He did not confine himself to one subject, but ranged over a number of subjects, including the problems pertaining to Canada and Canadians at the present time. He rapped Mackenzie King over some aspects of government censorship policy, especially the Drew letter. He criticized the Canadian newspapers for their policy in always belittling Russia and her people before the war and now their frantic efforts to pay tribute to her for her magnificent fight against the Nazis, which is also our fight. He had absolutely no sympathy for the Canadian Communist. Of them he said they had no interest in Canada or the British Empire, but their only desire was to see a second front opened so that Germany might be relieved from some of the Nazi pressure, regardless of whether or not the Allied Nations were in a position to open it.

He stated that the Prussian war lords were the real rulers of Germany and that Hitler was only a rabble rouser. Following the war, he suggested that Britain keep her soft hands out of the peace pie, leaving the mixing to Poland and Russia, who would see to it that it was well cooked. He stated that the Prussians would never again rise to create trouble. Touching on the Germans and their recent order to chain up their prisoners of war, he described them as sadistic beasts.

The second highlight in the entertainment program was the appearance of Premier William Aberhart at the luncheon given by the provincial government. The Premier was introduced to a number of editors, since this was his first meeting with them in convention since he took office in 1935. At the luncheon Premier Aberhart spoke very briefly, leaving the main address to his minister of agriculture, the Hon. D. B. McMillan.

Newspaper competition prizes were judged upon new rules this year, they being for the paper in each circulation class showing improvement in that year's period. The winner of the 750 and under class went to the association's new president, Gordon Neale, of Fort Saskatchewan. The award for 750 and over went to the Wetaskiwin paper.

Several pleasant hours were spent with Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Gare, formerly of The Journal. They are located at Trochu, and state they read The Journal each week to find out what their old friends are doing. They asked to be remembered to their old Coleman friends. They stood on the local C.P.R. depot platform for ten minutes this summer when passing through here on their vacation to British Columbia.

Legion Sets Deadline For Addresses

Parcels Will Be Mailed Late This Month; Citizens Urged to Get Addresses in to Legion Club.

Members of the local branch of the Canadian Legion are getting tired of sending out appeals for soldiers' addresses, regardless of whether the soldier may be in the Dominion or Britain. A deadline has been set, the date of which is Oct. 24, after which time the soldiers' whose addresses are known will get Christmas parcels and whose addresses are unknown will be penalized as a result of the lack of interest shown by their parents or wives.

The Soldiers' Comfort Fund committee will obey the appeal of Postmaster Mulock and send the parcels late this month. This will insure Christmas delivery.

Numerous soldiers' addresses are unknown. Many addresses at present on file may be incorrect, due to the movements of soldiers from one unit to another. It is to get as many correct addresses as possible that the Legion again appeals to Coleman citizens having addresses of local men in the armed forces to get busy and forward them to the Legion club or any Legion member.

Remember Saturday, Oct. 24, is the deadline.

Mrs. A. Anderson Passed Away Friday Afternoon

Funeral Held on Monday Afternoon; Interment in Union Cemetery.

It was with deep regret that a large circle of friends heard of the death of Mrs. Archie Anderson, 46, at the local hospital on Friday afternoon following a lengthy illness. Deceased had been of a quiet disposition and had earned the deep respect of all who knew her.

She was born in Fifehire, Scotland, in 1896, and had received her education at Burnside, Fifehire. In 1920 she came to Canada, settling in Coleman. In 1927 she was married to Mr. Archie Anderson at Coleman and has resided here since with the exception of a brief stay at Midnapore, Alberta.

In past years she was a member of Coleman Caledonian Society.

Surviving are the husband and son William; a sister, Mrs. J. Campbell, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and a brother, John Kinnear, of Coleman.

The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, services being conducted by Rev. J. E. Kirk at the family residence. Interment was in Coleman union cemetery. Pallbearers were Messrs. A. Dewar, J. Ewing, J. Toughed, W. Fraser, J. Ramsay and J. Barclay.

Out-of-town visitors attending the funeral were Mrs. George Kellock, of Midnapore; Mr. and Mrs. James Kellock of Vancouver; Mr. Gene Miller, of San Diego, and Mrs. and Mrs. J. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bosley and Mrs. J. Cardie, all of Bellevue. Many friends locally also attended.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish sincerely to thank friends for their kind expressions of sympathy and for the beautiful floral offerings in my recent bereavement in losing my dear wife, Annie Anderson. Also to the hospitable staff for their kind attention during her illness. —Archie Anderson.

ARRIVES OVERSEAS

A wire was received on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. John Sikora from their son Joe, stating that he had arrived safely overseas.

Routine Matters Engage Council's Attention

Requests For Street Lights, Clean Roads, Etc. Ratepayer Asks Compensation In Repairing Home in West Coleman.

There was little of importance to engage the council's attention at its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Present were Mayor Andros, Councillors Cox, Dutil, Ford and Jenkins.

A letter was received from Mrs. Thomas Hilbert asking that a light be placed in the back alley near her residence. Light and water committee was authorized to investigate.

Ed. Leier asked that cribbing washed out in the creek near his residence in the May flood be rebuilt. He offered his services for the work should the town not have men available. Works and Property committee were to investigate.

Letters were received from James Naylor and Dick Greenhalgh asking council to clean-up and make improvements to the roadway leading from Fifth street to the main road. Council has already had this part of the road raked and will now fill in the holes.

A letter was received from Sam Soroff, of west Coleman. He stated that damage was caused to his home as the direct result of the ground sinking, caused by underground mine workings. He requested the council to use its influence in having the International company compensate him for part of the cost. The letter was authorized sent to International Coal and Coke Co. office.

The water service to the Hebien home on the flat still is being discussed. The latest move is to approach Mr. Hebien to see if he can get someone to contract for the digging of the necessary ditch.

GOING INTO THE FISHING BUSINESS

Ralph Watson, who has resided in Coleman and other Pass towns for many years and was at one time a crack soccer player will leave the Pass for good on Saturday when he entrains for Vancouver. Ralph has been in the coast city for several months. Ralph, in partnership with another gentleman, will go into the fishing business. The men have purchased a fairly large boat and will be engaged in the fishing business throughout the year. Ralph went to the coast during the summer but was called back here to undergo a medical inspection by the Workmen's Compensation doctors. He has now been given permission to return to the coast.

LOCAL RATION BOARDS PLANNED

Mayors and Reeves in over 600 Canadian centres will contribute to the war effort as chairmen of the new local ration boards to be set up for the administration of rationing to meet local conditions, it is announced by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Alberta will have 35 local ration boards, extending from Dawson Creek in the north to Carleton Place in the south. Edmonton will be provincial headquarters. Panels of representative men and women will form the boards throughout the province. Organization is in its initial stages, but it is expected that by November 1, the superintendent of rationing in Alberta states.

Replacement of lost ration books and issuing of extra rations for special purposes, change of address, temporary cards for tourists, ration cards for soldiers on leave, are among the functions planned for the local boards.

Cigarette Fund Notes

$187 was collected by the Cigarette Fund Committee on Saturday.

Canadian Legion:—Just a few lines to let you know I've been getting your cigarette parcels quite regularly and I thank you and all those who make these parcels possible. They are a great help to a fellow over here and I shall not forget those who make it possible. Thank you all and the best of luck. Pte. Alex. Kanik.

Others acknowledging receipt of cigarettes were A. Celli, A. DeCocco, Bob. Borden and Lawrence Caroe.

Just a few lines in answer to the cigarettes I received the other day. I want to thank the Legion and Coleman citizens for what they are doing for us in sending cigarettes. The only other fellow from Coleman here is Joe Bodsch. There have been several Coleman fellows in here since I've been here, but it's just a depot, they come today and go tomorrow. Just last week Jasper Jones was here for a week he had just returned from the hospital where he had been laid up for several weeks with a broken finger.—L/C Jim Lloyd.

PROGRESSING FAVORABLY

Edward Zarowna, Macleod airman, injured on No. 3 highway near Blairmore on Saturday, Oct. 9, is progressing very favorably in the local hospital. When knocked down by a car he suffered two fractured legs and a head injury. He will probably be a patient for a week or two.

LONDON, Sept. 24 (CP) British bombers attacked objectives in north and northwest Germany last night including submarine yards at Flensburg. At least two R.C.A.F. squadrons participated in assault in which ten bombers were lost.

Radio in Canada

OF GENERAL INTEREST throughout Canada is the recent announcement of a new program policy for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation. The importance of radio in wartime is great, both as a source of information and news, and as a medium of entertainment. Discouragement and depression are serious detriments in time of war, and the radio can do much to inspire confidence and bolster morale across the land. The Axis nations have long recognized the power of radio in this respect, and much of the burning faith felt by the Axis soldiers in their cause, is attributed to the highly developed propaganda machines of those countries. In addition to inspiring their own people, they have used the radio widely in an attempt to break down the spirit of the people of the United Nations.

Many Stations Used By Axis

It is said that there are more than one hundred medium and long wave-lengths speaking for the Axis, while only about six speak in the English language. However, the British Broadcasting Corporation has been aiming steadily to work up a great instrument of propaganda, and there is now a staff of eleven thousands workers engaged in this undertaking. Canada is following this lead, with the early establishment of a powerful short wave station which will have a world-wide audience. Major Gladstone Murray, director-general for broadcasting of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, in announcing the plans for the creation of this station said: "The voice of Canada on the world's radio short waves will be symbolic of our proportioned maturity. It will be for us broadcasters to make sure that our message to the rest of the world is vigorously typical of Canada, worthy of our cause and of our destiny as a member of the British Commonwealth, as a North American nation and as a partner in the great alliance of freedom."

New Programs Are Planned

Important changes are being made in programs for listeners at home and there will be new features which will be of interest to all Canadians. For the schools, there will be a program known as "Heroes of Canada," to be broadcast each Friday during school hours, and there is to be another educational feature to be known as "Canadian Horizons." Major Murray has declared that radio is the acknowledged fourth arm of the services, next to the Army, Navy and Air Force, and every effort is being made to make the programs carried by the C.B.C. worthy to take their place in this sphere. It is the object of officials of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to use the radio as a medium "to help and stimulate every citizen to brush aside doubt, misgiving, fatigue and indifference," and Canadians will welcome with interest this new program policy.

At the present moment the Canadian people have available a cheap and palatable source of minerals and vitamins, those food elements so vital to maintaining health. This source of potential health is the year's crop of vegetables. Despite certain periods of anxiety, the crop has been an excellent one, well beyond expectations. It is up to the Canadian housewife to see that the supply of vitamins and minerals really arrives at the place where it will do the most good. This she can only do if she uses the modern up-to-date cooking methods.

Here are some interesting facts—three things happen to vegetable vitamins before you eat them and this is true chiefly of the B vitamins and vitamin C. First, some vitamin is destroyed, lost for good. Second, part of both vitamins and minerals dissolves in the cooking water. Third, a lot of what is left of the vitamin C also vanishes if you leave your vegetables sitting around in the warming oven before serving.

Now, the longer the cooking period, the greater the actual destruction of vitamin; the more water you use, the greater the loss by dissolving in the cooking water. So here are your rules for conservation of vitamins and minerals.

1. Cook all vegetables as lightly as possible.
  2. Cook them as quickly as possible.
  3. Serve them as soon as they are cooked.
- In other words, time your cooking so that the last job before serving the meal is putting the final touches on the vegetables—and do it fast. And here is something you may not know—there is one vegetable that benefits by the soda treatment, the humble navy bean. A dash of soda for keeping that fresh colour, is of course, the most efficient way of destroying most of the C content of any given vegetable. But try a little soda with your boiled beans (navy, remember, not green) and you get the opposite effect. This is because the addition of the soda softens up the tough bean coat and reduces your cooking time, so that you gain more than you lose. Navy beans, by the way, are an excellent source of vitamin B1 and a not to be despised meat substitute.

The Individual Citizen's Army

A Weekly Column About This And That In Our Canadian Army.

By Alan Maurice Irwin

It is quite a few weeks now since I was urgently chided by an editor for getting too personal about the Reserve Army, but it can't have been too bad because he published the article anyway.

If you give a columnist an inch he always takes the proverbial ell so here goes a little more about the men who are training themselves for home defence.

What brought the whole thing up was a suggestion made before the parade was dismissed the other night by the colonel that the best way to bring the regiment up to strength would be for every member to bring in one recruit. This suggestion appealed so strongly to a private soldier in one of the companies that he turned over to the Battalion for recruiting purposes, 500 agreeable lines of space which would otherwise have been devoted to advertising his own business during the month of September.

Another incident worth mentioning is the case of a private soldier who spent 14 days with us at camp. For this he drew pay at the rate of $1.20 per day and when his cheque was handed to him he borrowed a pen from his company commander and endorsed it over to the colonel with the message that there were no strings attached. In due course the Ladies' Auxiliary of our active service unit acknowledged to the soldier a contribution of $16.80 to its wool fund.

It is interesting to note that both the private soldiers referred to are Jews. You can't help being personal about a Reserve Army which is looked upon as so personal an institution as is illustrated by the two cases I have mentioned. Both of these men are of categories that do not fit them for active service, both own their own businesses—they train in their own time and no generous employer makes them a present of two weeks holiday in which to go to camp. These men are not unique, in fact it is pretty safe to say that they are representative of the calibre of the soldiers of the Reserve Army as it is now constituted.

In other words, to the reserve soldier of today his unit is a personal thing, it is something to which he devotes not just the after-work hours two nights a week, ten full Sundays in the year and 14 days at camp, but a good many minutes of fun time during the day.

He may not consciously think it, but in the back of the mind of every man who, though he may be working hard at a war job, puts in these extra hours in training for the eventual attack upon his homeland, there is the realization that had it not been for trained citizen-soldiers, the story in Yugoslavia and Russia would have been very different.

History bears out that a country possessed of a trained citizen-soldier in peace time is in less danger of attack than the country which has not taken this precaution. There must have been something wrong with Hitler's intelligence service. It obviously felt down badly so far as Russia was concerned—and his own intelligence should have told him what to expect from the Yugoslavs!

A few years before the outbreak of war in 1914 a melodrama was produced in England under the title "An Englishman's Home." This play demonstrated with terrific stage effects and blood and death what happens when untrained citizens attempt to defend their homes against fully trained invaders. If the lesson of this play had been learned and peaceful peoples had been prepared undoubtedly the 1914-1919 war would have been shorter and this one might not have occurred.

It is not only for the warlike arts that we should prepare ourselves in peace time, there are many peaceful arts that become not only virtues but stern necessities in time of war. The first of these, beyond doubt is defence against inflation. It can be more rapidly become successful if, like military training, it has been carried on during the softer years of peace.

We were unprepared on both counts and on both counts The Individual Citizen's Army was responsible. We found that we had more pennies in our pockets for luxuries, if we elected, or allowed to remain in office, politicians who pared down the budget by failing to provide funds for military training. Having saved those necessary tax pennies we wasted them on unnecessary frills—and now we find it hard to forego those frills. So hard, in fact, have we found it that we have welcomed the setting

Make This Delicious SUGARLESS CAKE

Light, fine-textured, tempting—but to assure best results, remember to use Swans Down Cake Flour. In all sugarless baking you need the extra lightness and delicacy that Swans Down gives to cakes.

Made specially for cake-baking from selected parts of choice, soft wheat, Swans Down Cake Flour is milled with great care, sifted again and again through silk to give it exquisite fineness that makes cakes more tender and appetizing.

2 EGG SUGARLESS CAKE

2 cups sifted Swans Down Cake Flour 1/4 tsp. salt
2 cups granulated sugar 1/2 cup butter or other shortening
2 eggs, unbeaten 1/2 cup milk 1/2 cup light cream
2 cups granulated sugar 1/2 cup milk 1/2 cup light cream

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream shortening with orange rind; add sugar gradually, beating well after each addition. Add 3/4 cup flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each. Add remaining flour in thirds, alternately with milk in halves, beating very well after each addition. For best results beat cake very well at each stage of mixing. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375°F) 30 minutes or until done.

up of governmental Boards and Commissions to compel us to discontinue our wasteful practices.

The Wartime Prices and Trade Board, one of the many wartime bodies we have created, is very much in the position of the instructors of the Reserve Army. We have placed ourselves under it just as volunteers place themselves under their sergeants and officers, and we are learning from it just as privates in the Reserve Army learn from their instructors, how to discipline ourselves so that we may become fit to meet the rigours of campaigning.

HIGH HEELS FORBIDDEN

Wartime "austerity" was extended to women's shoes throughout the British Isles with an order providing that after Nov. 1 all women's footwear must have wooden heels no more than two-and-one-eighth inches high. Forbidden altogether, along with high heels, were "Louis" heels curving into the instep.

STORY FROM MOSCOW

Moscow radio recently declared that the following story was being told among German prisoners of war. Hitler was inspecting the eastern front.

"What," he asked a German soldier, "would be your last wish if a Russian bomb fell near you?" "I would wish," the soldier replied, "that my beloved Fuehrer could be at my side."

TRUE FREEDOM

The only freedom worth possessing is that which gives enlargement to a people's energy, intellect, and virtues.—William Ellery Channing.

Only free peoples can hold their purpose and their honor steady to a common end, and prefer the interests of mankind to any narrow interest of their own.—Woodrow Wilson.

Give me the liberty to know, to think, to believe, and to utter freely, according to conscience, above all other liberties.—Milton.

The Pilgrims came to establish a nation in free freedom, in the rights of conscience.—Mary Baker Eddy.

If the true spark of religious and civil liberty be kindled, it will burn. Human agency cannot extinguish it.—Daniel Webster.

BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES ARE WILLING TO ABANDON EXTRA-TERRITORIAL RIGHTS IN CHINA

Washington.—As a magnanimous gesture of political freedom and equality to the Chinese people the United States and Britain are willing to abandon their extra-territorial rights in China. It was announced here by the state department.

The Chinese ambassador was informed by Under Secretary of State Sumner Welles that the two nations are prepared to negotiate a treaty with the Chinese Republic providing for immediate relinquishment of the powers wrested from China by the western powers in an earlier age, powers that have come to be regarded in Chinese eyes as humiliating and offensive to a proud and free people.

The contemplated step has tremendous political significance and its bearing on the post war world, particularly in Asia and the whole south-western Pacific, cannot be gauged yet. It is an obvious effort to root out a particularly glaring and prolonged example of imperialism by western powers and to restore full and untrammelled sovereignty to a free people.

It is the first practical application of the Atlantic charter, particularly the declaration favoring the restoration of sovereign rights and self-government to all people. The announcement was timed to coincide with the eve of China's national day.

The execution of treaties by Britain and the United States will have little practical effect immediately because the territories in which they exercised their century-old powers were in the coastal region, now under Japanese control. But the effect on Chinese morale and the lift it should give to Chinese political cohesion under Chiang Kai-Shek should be immediately felt.

Britain has exercised more extensive powers in China in recent years than any other western power, including the United States. There are other western nations holding extra-territorial rights in China, particularly France, but the feeling here is that if Britain and the United States give up their powers, the others will follow voluntarily.

Great Britain, the state department said in its announcement, "shares this government's views and is taking similar action."

The United States' decision was communicated to Chinese Ambassador Wei Tao-Ming by Welles who told the ambassador that the United States plans to present a draft treaty to the Chinese government for its consideration in the near future.

HEALTH OF WORKERS

Edmonton.—General health conditions in Canadian industrial plants has shown substantial improvement in the past year, Dr. C. F. Blackler, of Ottawa, in charge of the industrial hygiene branch of the department of pensions and national health, said in an interview here.

Send Your Dollars To War.

New Post

Rear Admiral G. C. Jones, R.C.N., commanding officer, Atlantic coast, since September, 1940, has been appointed to naval service headquarters as vice-chief of the navy staff.

FOREIGN TRADE

If Cut Off Would Affect Canadian Way of Life

Edmonton.—Hon. J. A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce, said in an interview here that "we cannot be too much on our guard against the spread in this country of economic nationalism and isolationism, no matter under what guise it may appear."

The minister said the absence of foreign trade would constitute a most serious attack "upon our Canadian standard and way of life."

"Certain elements in Canada today are endeavoring to convince the people they can live 'quite well' even if nothing whatever is imported into this country," Mr. MacKinnon asserted. "The doctrine of self-sufficiency is extremely dangerous to Canada's economy, even in time of war. It will be even more menacing to Canada's position when peace comes."

Probably no other country is so essentially an exporting nation as Canada, he continued, but Canadians cannot export their surplus products under normal conditions unless the goods of other nations are received in return.

DEPLORES PUBLICITY

London.—The London Times thinks we ought to do away with public debate on the question of a second front. The newspaper urges a comprehensive and co-ordinated Allied plan of strategy. Says the Times: "The fact that debate is being waged within the enemy's hearing among Allies in a life and death struggle implies that something is wrong with the United Nations war organization."

STILL A DANGER

Winter Would Not Keep Japan From Attacking Siberia

Bombay.—Don't count too much on General Winter to prevent the Japs from invading Siberia. Experienced observers in India think a Japanese assault on Russia is likely this winter—and that the weather will help, not hinder, the enemy.

For one thing, the ground is hard instead of soggy, and rivers, which ordinarily create a bridge building problem, will be frozen solid. In addition, the ice at Vladivostok will immobilize the Russian submarine flotilla. And winter weather would hamper Allied efforts to reinforce Russia's eastern air force.

The observers point out that the Japs made their conquest of North China in the dead of winter. The Japs have half a million of the best class troops in Asia, garrisoned in Manchukuo—not counting the recent reinforcements.

The Far Eastern strategists feel that the conquest of Siberia is Japan's paramount military objective.

IN CIRCULATION

First Shipments Of Canada's New Nickel Have Been Made

Ottawa.—Canada's new "blackout nickel," a 12-sided coin of copper and zinc, is being put into circulation in most larger Canadian centres now, Bank of Canada officials said.

First shipments of the new coin were made to fill outstanding requisitions for five-cent pieces. They went to Halifax and Vancouver and most other cities in which agencies of the Bank of Canada are located.

While some of these shipments will not yet have reached their destination the nickel was expected to be in circulation in many centres within a few days.

AIR RAIDS

Hon. R. J. Manion Sees Possibility Of Attacks On Canada

Ottawa.—Hon. R. J. Manion, director of civil air raid precautions, said he will be very much surprised if some Canadian cities—inland as well as on the coast—are not attacked from the air before the war ends and that less than half the cities of Canada have proper fire-fighting equipment to meet even normal peacetime needs.

This lack of fire-fighting equipment is almost a crime against our national life, he said in an address prepared for delivery over a Canadian Broadcasting Corporation net in connection with observance of Fire Prevention Week.

Despite Hole From Torpedo Ship Is Saved

This is part of the saga of bravery in the Battle of the Atlantic. The 18,000-tonker, a gaping torpedo-made hole amidships, stands by to be towed to port after the crew battled and conquered the ensuing fire. Two crew members died in the blast. Forty-two other crew members and a gun crew of 17 will carry on in the Battle of the Atlantic. The hole shows where the torpedo struck.

Rolling Towards A Second Front

England's new "Churchills," heavily-armed and armored, speedy infantry tanks, are pictured for the first time—up until this photograph was made they were very hush-hush. But secrecy did not keep production down. Look at the long lines of the new tanks stretching off into the distance—maybe towards a second front.

PATROL SHIP COMPLETES FIRST WEST TO EAST WATER VOYAGE ACROSS TOP OF NORTH AMERICA

Sydney, N.S.—Completing history's first west-to-east water voyage across the top of America, eight men arrived here in a little Royal Canadian Mounted Police patrol ship 2½ years after the vessel had set sail from Vancouver.

The re-discoverers of the famous Northwest Passage sailed quietly into this harbor aboard the 80-ton auxiliary schooner St. Roch, whose white-painted hull had bucked foes for most of the 28 months they spent thrusting their way through the ice-checked waters atop the continent.

For most of the time since they left the west coast port in June of 1940, the crewmen had been isolated from civilization except for the radio. They had lost one man to the privations of the north, but had picked up a replacement for the dead shipmate at one of the R.C.M.P. posts in the lonely land of snow.

Theirs was the second traversing of the Northwest Passage. Their only predecessors were the six men under Roald Amundsen, the Norwegian explorer, who first negotiated the twisting passage early this century, from east to west.

In the small Norwegian sealing sloop "Gjoa," Amundsen and his men set out in 1903 and emerged into the Pacific ocean more than three years later.

The story of the voyage that apparently wrote a new chapter into the geography books was shrouded in official secrecy as members of the crew declined to go into detail of their experiences.

All on the sturdy little vessel were members of the R.C.M.P. They were commanded by Sergeant Henry Larsen, a big Scandinavian-born Mountie.

The St. Roch itself, considering the battering it had undergone in the long months in the Arctic, was in remarkably good shape. Her solid, round hull bore few bruises.

The seagoing Mounties explained the St. Roch had been built specifically to ride over the floes that close in on ships in the north. As he negotiated the tortuous, dangerous passage where no east-bound vessel had pioneered, she was lifted bodily out of the water more than once.

The route of the tough schooner, once she had rounded Point Barrow, at the extreme northwest tip of America, was not known. But obviously the St. Roch had sailed through waters where no keel ever before had been dipped.

When she sailed, she carried a goodly load of provisions that were replenished from time to time as she touched at R.C.M.P. posts in the northlands. Her crew foraged, too, they said, and seals were shot and fish taken aboard for food.

Her crew did not disclose the identity of the man who died in the north or the place and manner of his death.

Whether the voyage was classified as a Mountie "patrol" trip or was especially designed as one of exploration was not known.

At all events, Arctic-wise veterans along this coast said the service could have picked no better combination for the job than Capt. Henry (Harry) Larsen and the St. Roch.

Larsen, a native of Denmark, has been called "the best Arctic skipper alive." He and the St. Roch have been a team since the schooner's launching in 1928.

The Scandinavian skipper has been in the northern trading business before he joined the R.C.M.P. at Vancouver. He served for years as first mate under Captain Petersen, a famous Arctic trader from Oakland, Calif.

His vessel, built in North Vancouver, was put together with an eye to meeting the conditions of the north. Her timbers are two-thirds heavier than those normally to be found in a ship of her construction.

Her outside hull construction is unique. She is sheathed in copper, and over that layer is another sheath of Australian "iron bark"—the only wood known to resist the grinding effects of ice.

For most of the time since her launching, the St. Roch has been sailing the western Arctic, carrying supplies to the R.C.M.P. outposts and the scattered settlers in the region. She has been to the Aleutians as well as to the territory to the east of Point Barrow.

The vessel is equipped with two-way radio and apparently was in touch with doings in the outside world on her long trip.

Some of them wearing heavy boots, the crew lit out for barbershops, stores and other city establishments on landing here. It was their first sight of a city in more than 2½ years. Their only previous stop had been at Corner Brook, a Newfoundland pulp and paper town.

ADVERSE WEATHER CONDITIONS ON THE PRAIRIES HAVE PROVEN HANDICAP IN GRAIN HARVESTING

Winnipeg.—Adverse weather conditions in the three prairie provinces have proven the major handicap in grain harvesting operations this year. It was disclosed by officials of the departments of agriculture.

Alberta and Saskatchewan both report 75 per cent. of the grain crop still to be threshed, while in Manitoba officials of the provincial department of agriculture reported more than 50 per cent., and probably 55 per cent., of the threshing had been completed.

Rain during the latter part of September and small falls of snow caused the delay—estimated on the prairies at from one week to a month or more in some places.

Coupled with this has been the general scarcity of farm labor, with Saskatchewan farmers reported to be most seriously affected.

An estimated 8,000 workers now are needed in Saskatchewan. Unofficial estimates place the number required in Alberta at around 2,000. Harvest workers are not needed in Manitoba for grain fields, but there is a pressing need for workers in the sugar beet fields.

Saskatchewan farmers, however, looked for some relief with arrangements made at Ottawa for the sending of 1,000 harvesters from eastern Canada.

The situation in Alberta, however, remained acute and agriculture department officials and the Edmonton branch of the unemployment insurance commission said the only solution for the harvest problem is good weather in which to complete operations. Further assistance will be given Saskatchewan farmers by 600 students from the University of Saskatchewan.

Weather during the past fortnight has been favorable and aided farmers in cutting remaining portions of their crops, officials said.

Much of the grain, however, has been bleached and the grade of grain lowered.

The Canadian Pacific Railway crop report said threshing and combining have made considerable progress and estimated operations completed to the following extent, with last year's figures in parenthesis:

Manitoba: Wheat, 67 per cent. (72); oats and barley, 69 per cent. (71).

Saskatchewan: Wheat, 38 per cent. (93); oats and barley, 46 per cent. (84).

Alberta: Wheat, 30 per cent. (56); oats and barley, 34 per cent. (55).

VOLUNTARY WORKERS

Would Bring More People Into Various Services

Ottawa.—Further development of voluntary organizations which now are playing valuable roles in various nation-wide wartime economy campaigns is being considered by the government. It was learned here.

The aim is to increase the effectiveness of these voluntary services in national drives like the salvage campaign, and to bring more workers into such organizations.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP

CANADIAN NAVAL FORCES LENT UNITED STATES ASSISTANCE IN LANDING ON ALEUTIAN ISLANDS

Ottawa.—Navy Minister Macdonald announced that a Canadian naval force of five warships co-operated with the United States force which effected the recent landing in the Aleutian islands.

The United States navy announced in Washington Oct. 3, that positions in the Andreanof group of islands in the Aleutians had been occupied, without opposition by American armed troops with naval support. The date and the extent of the operation were not announced, although it was said it happened "recently."

It was known previously that Canadian airmen have been taking part in operations against the Japanese in the Aleutian area. It was also made known previously that Canadian warships have been working with American naval units in the Aleutian area.

In reporting that a Canadian naval force had its share in the operation, Mr. Macdonald added that it was but another instance of how Canadian forces are co-operating with other forces of the United Nations.

"We have reason to be proud," he said, "of the work which our navy has been doing in the Atlantic ever since the first day of war. It has been both defensive and offensive, defending our coasts and our convoys and taking offensive action against the enemy whenever our ships could contact him."

"Now we have taken our part in an offensive action in the Pacific, have had our share in seizing the initiative from the Japanese and co-operating in a move which will put the United Nations in better positions to attack them."

The Japanese have a base at Kiska in the Aleutians and the landing of an American force in the Andreanof group establishes a United Nations base close to the enemy. Although the exact position of the landing was not revealed, the nearest point to the Andreanof Islands to Kiska is only about 125 miles and the farthest point is less than 400 miles.

The United States navy, after announcing the landing of an army force in the Aleutians, issued a subsequent announcement saying that air forces are operating from air fields in the Andreanof group.

Mr. Macdonald added as he told of the Canadian naval participation in the Aleutians operation that men of the Royal Canadian Navy have been, and are, engaged in naval operations all over the world. Recently, he said, Canadian naval men had seen action at Madagascar, in the Mediterranean, in the naval raid on Tobruk, and in the combined operations attack on Dieppe.

Four Ladies Teams Needed For Bowling League

Albert Sapeta, of Sapeta's Bowling alleys, is endeavoring to start a ladies' bowling league which will operate during winter months. He desires eight teams of five members to a team. He has secured four teams and needs four more. Providing he can fill the remaining teams he will start the league next week.

Leagues of this sort are operated each winter, the winners being awarded handsome prizes for Christmas tournaments and also at the conclusion of league play. Any lady interested in this healthful recreation need only apply to Mr. Sapeta to be placed on a team.

"Bill" Stevenson Leaving Coleman

Wm. Stevenson scheduled to leave Coleman on Saturday and go to Vancouver where he will take up residence.

Bill came here in 1928 and has been employed for many years as chief pumpman at McGillivray mine. He is also a member of Summit Lodge, A.F. & A.M.

He will be engaged in the coal furnace and building business with his brother Jack. The latter will be remembered as a pitboss in 1929 at McGillivray Creek. He has been engaged in the above business for some time in Vancouver. Bill's mother, Mrs. W. Stevenson has resided in the city for several years having left Coleman for the coast city.

Accompanying him to the coast will be Ralph Watson. They will make the trip by car.

WEDDINGS

NORTH-TROTZ

A pretty wedding was solemnized in the Catholic rectory on Saturday when Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Trotz, of Coleman, was united in marriage to Elmer North, of Blairmore.

The bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of white chiffon with finger tip veil, and carrying a bouquet of sweetheart roses and lily of the valley. Her only ornament was a gold locket, a gift from the groom.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Maureen McLellan, Annie Sygatak, Jenny Yagos and Jenny Trotz, wore floor-length dresses of blue chiffon and net, and carried bouquets of tea roses. The men attendants were Messrs. Barney Yakubik and Ernest Belick.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, after which the happy couple left for a honeymoon to be spent at Calgary, returning this week to reside at Blairmore, where the groom is employed.

Births

A visit to the vital statistics department at Antrobus' store revealed that The Journal had failed to record the births of thirteen babies in the past few weeks. Of the thirteen eight were boys and five girls. One of the baby girls and baby boys died shortly after birth to leave the ratio 7 to 4 in favor of the boys.

CANADIAN SOCIETY FOR THE CONTROL OF CANCER

In 1939, 13,196 Canadians died from cancer; over 1,000 per month.

Cancer is second only to heart disease as a cause of death.

Cancer stands first as a cause of death with women. Over 6,000 die annually in Canada from cancer.

Fear, modesty and lack of knowledge are enemies. Fear is the product of ignorance. Do not delay, consult your doctor and have a physical examination. Canada has cancer clinics, radium and x-ray equipment available to you. Write for information to Canadian Society for the Control of Cancer, 24 Bloor Street, East, Toronto.

Signs Which May Mean Cancer
Do not wait for pain. Pain is a late symptom.

Do not neglect any mass, lump, swelling or hardness on the face, neck, lip, tongue, in the mouth, in the breast or elsewhere in the body.

Cancer of the lip is most prevalent among men and generally begins in the lower lip. All lumps in the breast should be presumed to be cancer until proved not to be. Many cases can be cured if a diagnosis is made early.

An ulcer, sore or cracked lip which does not heal within a month demands attention. Any unnatural bleeding is a sign.

Attend to a wart or mole that starts to increase rapidly.

Hoarseness which persists past the duration of a common cold may be serious.

Difficulty in swallowing your food or indigestion which develops after the age of 40 requires investigation and probably x-ray examination.

MANS LAUGHTER CHARGE TO BE HEARD AT MACLEOD COURT OCT. 19

BOMB-PROOF FORMULA FOR VICTORY

- WORK HARDER . . .
- LEND MORE TO CANADA!

We have the men and they have both the skill and the courage. We have the just cause and the will to win. Then, "What is the Price of Victory?"

One answer is: Harder work on the home front; a tightening of belts from coast to coast; a foregoing of all luxuries; the saving of more money; a program of self-denial for the duration, so that we can lend more and more money to Canada.

Our investments in Victory Bonds will help to give us better-trained, better-equipped soldiers, sailors and airmen in this global struggle for human justice, decency and freedom.

Victory Bond dollars are "double-duty" dollars. They will shorten the war and will provide us with the means to carry out our new plans when peace comes again.

Self-denial is the order of the day. Save and invest.

When a Man Buys a Home...

WHEN a man wants a home, he saves for it. It matters little whether it is a home or a car or what comfort or luxury you have your heart set on, you expect to deny yourself other things in order to get it. Today, all Canada is saving for a home. Unless we do save, we'll lose all right to a home, as we know it. Under Hitler, conquered people have no rights. Every dollar spent needlessly today, gives Hitler a better chance to take away your right to enjoy the luxuries that a free Canada can give you tomorrow.

Your dollars saved and invested in the New Victory Bonds work two ways for you:

Victory Bond dollars help in the fight now for your right to the things you want.

Victory Bond dollars will provide the cash for you to get what you want when the war is won.

What are a few luxuries now, compared to the years of freedom that only Victory can make possible?

Possibility that Italian women are operating as spies in Northern Ireland was indicated in Belfast court when three were sentenced to serve three months in jail. They were suspected of carrying information from Northern Ireland to the Italian minister at Dublin.

Prices Set For Scrap

Provides Classification For Metals

Apart From Steel And Iron
Have you got a copper washbasin or an old radiator you want to turn in for scrap? If so, you don't need to wonder any more how much you should get for it.

The wartime prices and trade board announced an order which sets up price regulations for transactions in brass, copper, bronze, tin, lead, nickel and aluminum scrap.

It provides a classification for old radiators, shell cases and bullet jackets, and even trolley wheels and car boxes.

Steel and iron scrap prices are not affected by the order.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OCTOBER 18

GROWTH IN CHRIST
Golden text: Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. II Peter 3:18.
Lesson: Luke 2:40-52; Hebrews 5:11-14; II Peter 1:1-8.
Devotional reading: Ephesians 4:11-16.

Explanations and Comments
How Jesus Grew, Luke 2:40, 52. The Boy Jesus' development was threefold, physical, mental and spiritual.

Like every one, who lives, Jesus began his earthly life as a helpless infant, and like all normal children his powers developed gradually. As a child he grew physically and grew strong; as he increased in wisdom and stature, he grew spiritually, in favor with God and man. He had a gradual development until he attained a perfect manhood.

You know the Child Jesus in a picture at once, by a halo round his brow. There was no glory in his real life to mark him; we know this, for in after years his brethren thought his fame strange, and his townsmen rejected him. Gradually and gently he woke to consciousness of life and its manifold meanings; gradually, and not at once, he embraced the sphere of human duties, and he woke to his earthly relationships one by one—the Son, the Brother, the Citizen, the Master. It is a very deep and beautiful and precious truth that the Eternal Son had a human and progressive childhood.

The Christian Life One of Continual Growth and Progress, II Peter 1:1-8. This letter begins with an impressive announcement of the writer as Simon Peter (giving both his Jewish name and his Christ-given name) and his identification as a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ. The letter is written to all "that have obtained a life precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and the Saviour Jesus Christ." Note that the article, "the" before both his Jewish name and his Christ-given name, is italicized, showing that it is not in the original Greek, and consider the difference which its omission would make. The greeting is "Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord." Growth in grace and so in peace come through the knowledge and service of Christ.

"True growth is growth in the knowledge of Christ. That does not merely mean the knowledge about Christ. As far as that is concerned, we know only what his disciples have to tell us. Knowledge of Christ means something deeper. It means the knowledge of him as personal Friend, entering into our lives with guiding and challenge. We can know him as a power that inspires and comforts. We can know his ways with us, how he would have us bear ourselves in trouble or difficulty. To know him means to enter into all that he means for our life" (James Reid).

Importance Of Navigator

Pictured hard at work in his "office" is the navigator of a bomber, maps and charts spread out before him. The navigator is the businessman of the crew. While the other members of the team are engaged in action he must remain at his desk, coolly planning the aircraft's course in order to avoid heavy defensive establishments and yet get the aircraft to its destination over the shortest route. On certain types of aircraft he also acts as bomb-aimer, a task requiring the utmost in skill, coolness and courage.

Steadily Draws Nearer

Hitler's Armies Cannot Escape The Final Day of Reckoning

I wonder, says Hannen Swaffer, in People, if Hitler realizes how Great Britain is becoming every week, more like an armed camp, or how aerodromes are being laid out, and men being trained, and munitions being stored, in readiness for the invasion of which Dieppe was only a try-out.

A month before the war, it took me nearly all day, with short stops at Amsterdam and Copenhagen, to fly to Gdynia. A short time ago, R.A.F. bombers flew all the way there, raided the port, and flew back. Soon, no point which the Germans hold will be safe.

The "long-term" policy has been decided on, despite the demands for a second front immediately. Well, the day of its fulfilment draws nearer.

By then, the Americans will be ready.

JUST WANT TO HELP

SMILE AWHILE

"Is this a good brand of perfume?"
"That, madam, is one of our best smellers."

Speed Idiot—It's great speeding along like this. Don't you feel glad that you're alive?

Passenger—Glad isn't the word. I'm amazed!

Father—Isn't it time you were entertaining the prospect of matrimony?
Daughter—Not quite, dad. He won't be here until 8 o'clock.

"I've tried to propose to Susan a dozen times and hanged if I can do it. I've slumped every time."
"And she let you slump?"
"Yes."

"My boy, you are courting the wrong girl."

Miss de Frost—Circumstances compel me to decline a marital arrangement with a man of no pecuniary resources.

Mr. Gayt—Er—I don't get you—
Miss de Frost—That's what I'm telling you.

"Now there is a woman who makes the little things count."
"What does she do?"
"She teaches arithmetic in our grade school."

Doctor—Your husband, Madam, is suffering from voluntary inertia.
Patient's Wife—Poor dear Robert! And I accused him all along of being lazy!

"I'll let you off with a fine this time, but another day I'll send you to jail."
"That's what I expected."
"What do you mean?"
"Fine today—cooler tomorrow."

Guest—Two eggs, please. Don't fry a second after the white is cooked. Don't turn them over; not too much grease; just a pinch of salt on each; no pepper—well, what are you waiting for?

Waiter—The hen's name is Betty—she is a white feathered bird. Is that all right, sir?

WORTHY OF ANTHEM

The probability is that most Russians have never heard of the "Song of the Volga Boatmen," but some Soviet composer may well compose an anthem to commemorate the epic defence now being put up along that historic river's banks.

Agricultural workers (fellahin) form about 62 per cent of Egypt's population.

DISCONTINUE TROOP MESSAGES ON CBC

During Mr. Gladstone Murray's talk entitled "Radio—The Fourth Arm" on September 21st over the CBC National Network he spoke of the CBC's Overseas Unit and its important war task of providing a link between the forces overseas and their homeland. One method employed to this end is personal messages from Canadians abroad to their families and friends at home, and while these broadcasts serve a useful purpose for a time, changing circumstances and necessary limitations which have made it impossible to eliminate disappointment and irritation are reasons for the discontinuance of this service after October 18.

The two methods of bringing these messages to Canada are by short wave and by recordings conveyed by sea and neither method is completely reliable or satisfactory. Ships are lost, and messages sent by air sometimes fail because of bad transmission conditions.

Another point to be considered is that while Canada had a relatively small force overseas, the great number of men Canada now has in Britain makes its quite impossible, to bring over a small percentage of these men to the microphone. Perhaps most important and urgent of all the reasons set forth by Mr. Murray is the question of casualties and the attendant heartache suffered by the family of a man reported as "Killed in Action" or "Missing" after he has made his broadcast from, say, the Beaver Club in London and before his message is rebroadcast to his family.

It is over military communication channels that some of the lists of the men who participate in CBC broadcasts from Britain have travelled to Canada and occasionally this has meant that those important channels have been overloaded and that vital information was delayed while the lists were being sent.

The CBC Unit overseas will continue to develop the work of reporting the activities of the Canadian forces in Britain and will send word pictures by means of feature and documentary broadcasts to listeners in Canada.

WHEN HITLER WAS TEMPTED

THOSE WHO ARE AFRAID
There are some people who are said never to know what fears mean. The greater hero, however is the man who is afraid but who is too proud to show it. That is real heroism, and a man who has that sort of courage will go through life and become a great leader.—Earl Jellicoe.

If half the energy was devoted to predicting success as to prophesying disaster and calamity, the world would be a much brighter place to live in.

HALFWAY HOUSE

— BY —
MICHAEL TRENT

CHAPTER I.

Anne Lowry listened to the tap-tap of her father's cane along the verandah of Halfway House, and there was a hollow echoing of the sound in the empty lobby. Some trick of acoustics caused the echo—and the echo played a sudden trick on Anne's nerves. She sat there barely breathing, and the empty tapping seemed to reverberate around her like a static charge. A queer uneasiness crept over her, and for the first time she was afraid of the rambling mountain lodge.

The tapping continued back and forth along the long timbered verandah. Back and forth, her father trying to work strength back into his frail body. The tapping halted by the open lobby doors and Anne saw her father beckoning. She rose from her perch, and Anne rose, walked to the corner and turned on the radio. She didn't care what came in, just so it was sound. It was the 12 o'clock news broadcast.

The newscaster's voice boomed in the quiet room. "Canadian authorities announced today that a German aviator had escaped from a prison camp in Alberta Province. Royal Northwest Mounted Police are trailing the man, and it is thought that he attempted to reach the International Border."

Anne turned back to tune out the news broadcast. It seemed almost a sacrilege, the intrusion of trouble into the serenity of Halfway House. Anne's fingers touched the dial. "This man is known to be armed. It is thought he is outside help in making his escape. He speaks perfect English."

Anne turned the dial. She filled the room with music that was gay, and that was better.

She was busily working when her father again called her to the door—this time he pointed down into the valley.

"Company's coming," he said. "There's a rider moving along the trail from National Park."

Anne saw the rider along the pines far across the valley. He wore the green uniform of the Forest Service, a wide-brimmed campaign hat and he rode a handsome black horse. He came out of the pines shortly, climbing toward Halfway House, and finally he waved. A moment later he rode onto the hotel grounds. He was a big man, sun-browned and keen-looking. He sat his horse with a definite jaunting air, riding it before the verandah, and his glance struck at Anne, held a brief moment, then passed on to Drew Lowry. Anne thought she detected a question in his eye, but now, as he dismounted, it went away.

"I heard Halfway House had been opened again," he said, "so I thought I'd ride over and become acquainted." He had a nice smile. He stood a full six feet, and his uniformed shoulders were broad. Anne found herself noticing those little things about him. He offered his hand to Drew Lowry.

"I'm Steve Hayes, from over at the Squaw Creek Ranger Station." "Glad to know you," Drew Lowry said. "My name is Lowry, and this is my daughter Anne. He smiled in his own fashion. "I guess we can call ourselves neighbors."

"That's the way I'd like to have it," the Ranger stepped smartly forward and offered his hand to Anne. It was a big, firm hand and his handshake, like his eyes, was direct. Anne thought: "I'd hate to hide anything from this man." Aloud, she said, "Yes, it will be nice, having neighbors."

"Sure there are no strangers in the north country. That may surprise city people." Steve Hayes looked from father to daughter. "You are city people? Or am I reading the signs wrong?" "You're right, after a fashion," Anne replied. "I supposed we'd be called tenderfeet." She meant it as humor, but the visitor seemed not to notice. He was looking about Halfway House, seeming to register it in detail for a retentive mind. He asked, almost too casually: "How many people do you have here?"

"HALFWAY HOUSE"

By MICHAEL TRENT

When Drew Lowry and his daughter, Anne, left South America and the U.S. consular service to live in the Rockies, where Drew's tropical disease might at last be beaten, they could not possibly have known how parts of that past would crop up again in the north country.

It was when Anne saw the sheriff and a posse of men start out on a mission that she had her first apprehension. And then when her old friend, Erich Kruger, appeared, the whole panorama began to take form. She and Drew were to be obligated to shelter a German aviator, an escaped Canadian prisoner of war.

"There are eight of us altogether," Anne told him. "My father and I, and six employees."

"All strangers to the country?" "Yes, all strangers."

"Guests coming soon?"

"Yes; the first tomorrow. Two couples are coming. More later, we hope."

Steve Hayes nodded, said politely he hoped Halfway House would be a success. He again gave the hotel a quick survey, that suggestion of inquiry back in his eyes. But he asked no more questions. He shook Drew Lowry's hand once more, then Anne's, and still holding hers he said, "Visitors are welcome anytime at the Station. The boys will be glad to become acquainted."

He gave Anne a sweeping look, as a man will a pretty girl, then he saluted and strode to his horse. The man and girl at Halfway House watched him disappear into the trees of the Indian Lake watershed.

Drew Lowry chuckled and observed, "He must have heard we have a pretty girl at Halfway House. But Anne shook her head, disbelievingly.

"No," she said, "he came looking for something—something other than a girl. And he didn't see it, whatever it was."

Anne Lowry was both right and wrong about Forest Ranger Steve Hayes. He had come for a look at the new occupants of Halfway House, and his interest was more than mere curiosity. But he had also heard there was a pretty girl at the mountain lodge; and, being a young man who saw few pretty girls, he had made it his business to see if this one was pretty as the mountain grapevine said.

Anne wasn't the prettiest girl Steve Hayes had ever seen, but during the afternoons lonely patrol he remembered her. She had made a pleasant picture with her coppery hair and her tall slender body, and Steve Hayes couldn't recall having ever before seen a girl with green eyes. He suspected it was her eyes that kept him thinking about her. There was something about her eyes, something more than their unusual prettiness, that impressed him. There had been a vague uneasiness in them, and Steve Hayes wondered if that had meaning.

It was no accident that brought him, on his way back to the ranger station, around by Halfway House at sundown.

He'd come through the pines bordering Indian Lake. The sun was half down behind a western peak. The mountains were washed with splashes of brassy yellowed light. The half trail, half log-timber lodge had a definite charm in the sunset. Steve Hayes, hidden among the trees, watched the big house for a long interval, seeing nothing wrong yet continuing to be oddly interested. He had been there perhaps ten minutes when he heard the splash of nearby water.

Anne was close to shore, evidently meaning to come out of the water. A green beach robe and a pair of straw sandals lay on a rock near by. She swam well, strongly, and Steve Hayes caught the flash of white arms and the splash of color that was her yellow swim suit. She wore a white rubber cap over her coppery hair. She had a little difficulty climbing out on the rough bank, and Steve went and gave her hand. His sudden appearance seemed to give her a start. She looked cold, and her teeth chattered, as he helped her up.

"Isn't it chilly for swimming?" he asked.

"A little," she said. She was visibly shivering as she removed her cap. Her thick hair tumbled in rich loose waves about her head.

Steve Hayes got her robe, held it for her, and she was very close as she slipped into it. A bit too close to let her go without being kissed.

Free-To Our Readers

Speech Delivered By Principal F. Cyril James Of McGill University "Reconstruction After The War," the speech delivered by Principal F. Cyril James of McGill University at the fortieth annual convention of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants in Calgary, has been printed in full in the October issue of "The Canadian Chartered Accountant."

Because of the business, social and economic significance of the speech and the popular appeal of the subject matter, the Association has arranged for reprints which will be sent free on request to the Association at 10 Adelaide Street East, Toronto.

Students, educationists, commercial and financial leaders will find the full data contained in this brilliant speech of extraordinary interest in their speculations as to the conditions which progressive thinkers hope will obtain at the expiration of the war.

Salvage Difficulty

Study Methods For Making Use Of Tin Cans

The tin can—christened "the headache" of salvage collection—gave promise of making a contribution toward meeting Canada's steel shortage as members of a House of Commons sub-committee on war expenditures urged study of methods of making effective use of it.

While many tons of cans have been collected, the sub-committee heard that difficulties of shipping, pressing them into blocks suitable for mill furnaces and separation of the tin from other metals in their composition had resulted in only a small percentage of those collected actually being used.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

There's a one-man power plant serving the lighting and power needs of a good-sized town in Quebec, Canada. He's his own manager, engineer, maintenance and construction department. His plant and assembly of odds and ends that generate power are described in an Associated Screen "Did You Know That" movie short of oddities in the Canadian scene.

—LATES COURTESY MONETARY TIMES, TORONTO.

Underneath it's a Packing Box. This is what your bedroom needs—a southern-belle vanity! Between frothy ruffles and red-dotted white swiss you get tantalizing glimpses of red ribbon, run through beading and tied in bows.

You can make the table from a packing box! Stand the box on end, with open side front, and nail on a kidney-bean shaped board for the top. On this you stretch first a piece of white sateen lining, then a piece of dotted swiss; fold over edges and tack underneath.

Make the skirt lining as long as from top to floor and the same width as around front and sides. Measure twice this width for ruffles and vary ruffles in depth.

Sew a length of beading (you buy it by the yard) to the top of each ruffle and fasten the ruffles to the lining with double-snap tape (except for the top one, basted on). So you can wash the lining, too, just double-snap it to table.

Darling, with pretty curtains and bedspread to match! Our 32-page booklet tells details of making the vanity. Also tells how to make inexpensively a book-rack side table, pillow tops, pot holders, many other attractive items for yourself or as gifts.

Must Eat Less

A Forecast For Britain In The Next Year

The forecast that Britons will eat even less in the next year than that the first three years of the war so that their armies may attack in Europe was made by Food Minister Lord Woolton.

Whatever measures he takes henceforth will be aimed at conserving the nation's resources "for more active prosecution of the war," he said in a speech at Edinburgh.

VICTORY LOAN DRIVE FOR $750,000,000 OPENS MONDAY

We will push on to Victory!

WHEN FRANCE FELL, and Britain stood with her back to the wall, one strong jaw jutted out, and the grip of one clenched fist shook the Empire.

It was Churchill hurling Britain's decision across the channel. Quit? ... Never! ... Fight? ... Yes, through the hell of adversity till victory is won.

Today Canadians face challenge after challenge with the same unconquerable spirit. Today we are asked to do without so that our fighting men will have everything they need—when they smash straight into the heart of enemy defences.

Canada's ringing answer to this latest challenge will be:

"Yes, we'll fight with the last ounce of our strength, and the last dollar we can earn and save."

Canada's Victory Loan drive opens Monday. Canada's Victory Loan representative will ask for your answer soon. Will it be "No, I do not choose to do my part"?

Or will it be "Yes! Yes!! Yes!!! I will buy Victory Bonds! I will lend all my support to help make victory sure."

You will be laying up for yourself the best of all investments—VICTORY BONDS are backed by all the resources of the Dominion of Canada; they yield a fair rate of interest; you can borrow against them; and they are readily saleable when you need the cash.

HOW TO BUY

Give your order to the Victory Loan salesman who calls on you. Or place it in the hands of any branch of any bank, or give it to any trust company. Or send it to your local Victory Loan Headquarters! Or you can authorize your employer to start a regular payroll-savings plan for you. Bonds may be bought in denominations of $10, $100, $500, $1000 and larger. Salesman, bank, trust company or your local Victory Loan Headquarters will be glad to give you every assistance in making out your order form.
